

University of Illinois Extension Adams/Brown Unit will sponsor
4-H Horse Day Camp & Riding Clinics

PERMISSION TO PARTICIPATE

The Illinois Equine Liability Act requires sponsors to provide the following warning to participants:

Warning

Under the Equine Activity Liability Act, each participant who engages in an equine activity expressly assumes the risks of engaging in and legal responsibility for injury, loss or damage to person or property resulting from the risk of equine activities.

As parent or guardian of _____
Name of Participant

I am aware that activities involving horses, ponies and other equines are associated with the following risks, including but not limited to:

1. the propensity of an equine to behave in ways that may result in injury, harm, or death to persons on or around them,
2. the unpredictability of an equine's reaction to sounds, sudden movement, and unfamiliar objects, persons, other animals, or other things,
3. certain hazards of surface or subsurface conditions,
4. collisions with other equines or objects,
5. the potential of a participant to act in a negligent manner that may contribute to injury to self or others.

In addition, this event has the following risks:

4-H Horse Day Camp classes associated with an Open Arena

Classes associated with the 4-H Riding Clinics

University of Illinois Extension Adams/Brown Unit has taken the necessary precautions to make the 4-H Horse Day Camp and Riding Clinics safe for participants, the public and their property.

I agree to follow the rules for 4-H Horse Day Camp and all Riding Clinics.
