

Caring

Caring means being compassionate, kind, loving considerate and charitable. Show concern.

Below each picture, list some things you can do to show you care for your home, community, environment and others.

Home

Community

Environment

Others

"Character is revealed by how we treat people who cannot help or hurt us."
--Michael Josephson

Caring

- Do you help others without expecting a reward?
Are you thankful for what others do for you?
- Do you think about other people's feelings and needs and how your actions might affect them?
- Are you patient, understanding and forgiving?
- Are you careful with your possessions and things that belong to others?
- Do you donate to charities?

- Are you considerate use good manners?

and

- Are you kind to people and animals and other creations?

Be loving and gentle. Don't be mean, cruel or insensitive.

It's important to care for to let others care for you. help when you need it.

others and Accept

Created by: Anna Polk, Lawrence County, Illinois Volunteer, 2006

CHARACTER COUNTS!<sup>sm</sup> and the Six Pillars of Character are service marks of the CHARACTER COUNTS!<sup>sm</sup> Coalition, a project of the Josephson Institute of Ethics.

www.charactercounts.org

United States Department of Agriculture ■ Local Extension Councils Cooperating
University of Illinois Extension provides equal opportunities in programs and employment.