

Respect

GOALS/HOMEWORK

DAY 1: Look up the word “respect” in the dictionary. Write the definition below.

DAY 2: Do the Human Treasure Hunt, on the back of this form, throughout the week. You must have a different person for each statement.

DAY 3: Find an article about someone who should be shown respect. Attach it to this page. Write the reason why this person should be shown respect.

DAY 4: Tell a teacher why you like his or her class. List the reason here.

DAY 5: Tell your parents how important they are. List the reason here.

Make sure you have finished the Human Treasure Hunt on the reverse side.

I did all of the work above in a trustworthy manner.

Student Signature

Date

Prepared by: Carol Wilcoxon, Unit Educator, Youth & Family, Henderson-Mercer-Warren Unit

THE HUMAN TREASURE HUNT

You are about to take part in a human treasure hunt, searching for respectful people who meet the descriptons provided on the list. A person may only sign once.

1. Someone who can define the meaning of respect in his/her own words? (Write their definition and have them sign after it.) _____

2. Someone who is proud of an accomplishment? (Write what the accomplishment was and have them sign after it.) _____

3. Someone who was put down for doing the right thing, but did the right thing anyway? (Write what they were put down for and have them sign after it.) _____

4. Someone who has an unusual career? (Write down their career, why it is unusual and have them sign after it.) _____

5. Someone who is happy just being himself/herself? (Write down why they are happy and have them sign after it.) _____

6. Someone who does not follow the crowd? (Write down an example of how they do not follow the crowd and have them sign after it.) _____

7. Someone who has a hobby? (Write down what the hobby is and have them sign after it.) _____

8. Someone who plays a musical instrument? (Write down what instrument they play and have them sign after it.) _____

9. Someone who respects other people? (Write down how they show respect to others and have them sign after it.) _____

10. Someone who has a birthday this month, and respects the fact that being a year older should make a difference in some ways? (Write down what they will do differently and have them write their birthdate and sign after it.) _____
