

Should Straw be Used on a Newly Seeded Lawn?

Yes. Straw should be applied over a new seedbed to hold the moisture in the bed area and ensure better seed germination. One bale of straw will cover approximately 1000 square feet of lawn area.