

New For 2009

NEW PROJECTS/CLASSES -

- *4-H Cooking 201 - Exhibit cheese muffins!, page 99
- *Environmental Awareness class, see page 95
- *New Project Design and Recycled Accessory class, page 108
- *Unrecorded Grade Dairy class, page 27

NOTE CHANGES -

- *Photography exhibits are not to be in frames for any photography class, see rules, page 114.
- *Do Your Own Thing requires a report, see page 117.
- *Small Pets - NO live animals will be shown for classes 2001-2006, see page 70 for requirements.
- *Check out computer exhibit changes on page 87.
- *Public Presentations will again check in on Tuesday evening.
- *Some Foods, Nutrition & Health classes will be checked in on Tuesday. Please refer to individual class descriptions to verify check-in times and locations.

LIVESTOCK PREMISES ID - VOLUNTARY again for 2009

A livestock Premises Identification number will be voluntary again this year. The Premises ID should be for the location where the animal(s) are produced and/or raised, and need not be in the 4-Her's name. State Fair will require Premise ID for barrow entries only. To obtain an ID #, go to website <http://www.agr.state.il.us/premiseid/> or call 1-866-299-9256 for a paper form. There is no charge.

SECTION 9 VOAG FAIR - WELCOME FFA members!

McLean County Fair will host the Section 9 Fair.
VoAg Fair will be on Tuesday, July 28, beginning at 9:00 am.